SCHUFA Clause for Rental Contracts

I hereby consent to the Baugenossenschaft für den Stadt- und Landkreis Bamberg e. G. forwarding to SCHUFA Holding AG, Kormoranweg 5, 65201 Wiesbaden, Germany, data about the application for this rental contract, and further consent to it receiving information about me from SCHUFA.

Irrespective thereof, the Baugenossenschaft für den Stadt- und Landkreis Bamberg e. G. may also forward to SCHUFA information about its claims against me for invoices that have fallen due for payment (e.g. claim amount according to name following termination in accordance with sections 543, subsection 2, no. 3, 569, subsection 3, BGB, or regarding default in payment in accordance with section 573, subsection 2, no. 1, BGB). This is permissible in accordance with the German Data Protection Act (section 28a, subsection 1, sentence 1) if I have not paid the due amount irrespective of the fact that it has fallen due for payment, if the forwarding is necessary to safeguard justified interests of the Lessor or third parties, and if the claim is enforceable or I have expressly acknowledged the claim.

Furthermore, the Baugenossenschaft für den Stadt- und Landkreis Bamberg e. G. shall also forward to SCHUFA data about other conduct that is not as per agreement (e.g. fraudulent acts or other misuse). Such notification may only be provided in accordance with the German Data Protection Act (section 28, subsection 2) insofar as this is necessary to safeguard the Lessor's or a third party's justified interests, and there is no reason to assume that the affected party's interest that is worthy of protection overrides the exclusion of such forwarding.

SCHUFA stores and uses the received data. The use includes calculating a probability value on the basis of the SCHUFA database to assess the credit risk (score). It forwards the received data to its clients in the European Economic Area and Switzerland to provide such parties with information on assessing the creditworthiness of natural persons. SCHUFA clients are companies that are subject to financial default risks on the basis of services or deliveries (credit institutions and credit card and leasing companies in particular, but also letting, trading, telecommunications, energy supply, insurance and collection companies). SCHUFA only makes personal data available if a justified interest in that respect has been credibly presented, and if the forwarding is permissible following consideration having been given to all interest. Therefore, the scope of the respective data that are made available may vary depending on the type of contracting party. Furthermore, SCHUFA uses the data to check the identity and age of persons at the request of its clients, who, for example, render Internet services.

I am entitled to receive information about the data concerning me that are stored at SCHUFA. Further information on the SCHUFA information and score procedure can be viewed at www.meineschufa.de. SCHUFA postal address is:
